JOINT STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER

WHEREAS, in a September 20, 2022 Order, this Court authorized the United States of America to access “certain documents that Walmart has produced in the MDL Repository” (D.I. 69);

WHEREAS, the September 20, 2022 Order also provided that “[u]nless otherwise ordered by the Court at a future date, the United States of America may not access Walmart dispensing data, deposition transcripts, expert reports, or Walmart’s written responses to formal discovery that Walmart has produced into the MDL Repository” (D.I. 69);

WHEREAS, the parties having met and conferred regarding the United States of America’s request to access Walmart deposition transcripts;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the parties, subject to the approval of the Court, that within ten days of the date of this Order, Walmart will provide the United States of America with the deposition transcripts and exhibits of Walmart fact witnesses that are available to claimants in the In re National Prescription Opioid Litigation, Case No. 17-MD-2804 (N.D. Ohio) (“MDL 2804”), which include the transcripts of current and former Walmart employees taken in that case, as well as in other cases that were produced to the MDL Claimants.

The remaining provisions in the September 20, 2022 Order (D.I. 69) remain unchanged.
